

Vice President

Primary Objective of Position

To assist the President in implementing ARRL policies.

Accountability:

Vice Presidents are accountable to the President.

Major Areas of Responsibility:

1. Keep informed on Amateur Radio Service matters, both foreign and domestic.
2. Carry out assignments from the President.
3. Communicate with Directors and Officers of the ARRL on matters of interest to Amateur Radio.
4. Prepare semi-annual written reports for the Board of Directors.

In addition, the Vice President for International Affairs shall:

1. Monitor the relationship of the Senior Technical Relations Specialist, staff, and the IARU.
2. Initiate recommendations for ARRL representation at international meetings.
3. Encourage the growth and strengthening of IARU, its member societies, and Amateur Radio worldwide.
4. Coordinate and monitor planning and strategy for improving international frequency allocations to the Amateur Radio Service.