Our Cover

Ham radio's many sub-hobbies offer endless ways to challenge yourself. In this month's cover story, "The First Activation of Antsell Rock," David Wise, KM3A, details his progression from a beginner Summits on the Air (SOTA) aficionado to becoming the first ham (along with Scott Linquist, N00I, who's pictured on the cover) to activate Antsell Rock, in the San Jacinto Wilderness. Find further tools and inspiration for goal-setting in Robert Anding's, AA5OY, article "The CW Game," which offers a way to hone your Morse code skills, and don't miss this issue's special insert, "Contest Season 2021 – 2022," which is full of resources and hints to help you have your best radiospot season yet.
